Deadline Approaching

4 Weeks Remain to Submit an Abstract and Apply for a Travel Award

Share the work you're doing to advance stem cell science. Submit an abstract today for the opportunity to present and discuss your work with representatives from academia, industry, research institutions, governments and nonprofits around the world.

Abstracts must be submitted electronically. Be sure to read the submission rules and policies, submission topics and frequently asked questions. ISSCR members were e-mailed their abstract submission account information on November 9. Nonmembers must create a login account.

The ISSCR has a non-refundable $50 USD abstract submission fee for each submitted abstract. This fee is separate from meeting registration. All abstract presenters will need to register for the ISSCR Annual Meeting.

ISSCR Travel Awards

You must submit an abstract to be considered for a travel grant. Travel award application is part of the abstract submission process.
